FIRST DAY, SECOND SPECIAL SESSION

MAY 15, 2025

H. B. No. 24-1, HS1

AN ACT

TO AMEND PROVISIONS IN TITLE 6, DIVISION 1, PART 1, CHAPTER 3, SEXUAL OFFENSES, ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS, RELATING TO SEXUAL ABUSE/ASSAULT OF MINORS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE TWENTY-FOURTH NORTHERN MARIANAS COMMONWEALTH LEGISLATURE:

1 SECTION 1. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

2 Criminal acts against minors, particularly, sexual abuse and sexual assault
3 are serious crimes, acts of violence, and grave offenses. These offenses are 4 especially egregious when committed against minors who cannot legally give 5 consent in situations involving significant age differences. These acts of violence 6 often involve manipulation, coercion, force, or abuse of power, targeting those 7 perceived as vulnerable, including but not limited to children, individuals with 8 disabilities, and others in vulnerable situations. The Legislature, working 9 collaboratively with the CNMI Sexual Assault Response Team (SART),
10 considered feedback from the community, including youth, survivors, advocacy 11 groups, child protective agencies, and law enforcement, to ensure the

HOUSE BILL 24-1, HS1

1 amendments herein, address the real needs and concerns of those affected by 2 these crimes.

3 Here in the CNMI, these crimes cause severe short and long-term effects on 4 victims, including children and adolescents. These effects can manifest as post-5 traumatic stress disorder, suicide, self-harm, eating and sleep disorders,
6 dissociation, depression, and substance abuse. No person, particularly no child, 7 should endure such trauma. Furthermore, it is crucial to prohibit any form of 8 sexual activity between students and individuals employed or contracted by their 9 educational institutions. School employees and contractors hold positions of 10 authority and are responsible for students' protection and care. Therefore, 11 expressly banning any form of sexual interaction between these groups is 12 necessary.

13 Evidence and data obtained from various agencies within the CNMI 14 emphasize the urgent need to strengthen legal protections for victims. The 15 Division of Youth Services - Child Protective Services reported the following 16 allegations of sexual abuse: 41 in FY 2016, 44 in FY 2017, 44 in FY 2018, 63 in 17 FY 2019, 63 in FY 2020, 63 in FY 2021, 88 in FY 2022, and 115 in FY 2023.
18 According to the Department of Public Safety - Criminal Investigation Bureau, in 19 2023, there were 17 reported cases of sexual assault (SA) and 55 cases of sexual 20 abuse of a minor (SAM). As of September 2024, the numbers show 9 SA cases and 21 24 SAM cases. Data from the Office of the Attorney General - Criminal Division
22 reveal the following for SA cases (which encompass both sexual abuse of minors 23 and sexual assault cases): 12 in 2015, 25 in 2016, 17 in 2017, 15 in 2018, 11 in 24 2019, 20 in 2020, 31 in 2021, 31 in 2022, and 28 in 2023.

25 Sexual abuse and sexual assault victims are extremely vulnerable and 26 sadly, as the above statistics demonstrate, a significant percentage of the victims 27 are minors, further highlighting the vulnerability of this population and the 28 necessity for enhanced legal measures. As a community dedicated to protecting

1 its most vulnerable members and strongly opposing these malicious acts, the 2 Legislature finds that we must renew our commitment to these victims by 3 reinforcing and securing their protection from crimes involving the sexual abuse
4 of minors and sexual assault. This commitment is essential for safeguarding both 5 current and future generations. Combined with our efforts to deter these crimes 6 and ensure offenders are held accountable, the safety and well-being of both 7 children and adult victims depend on the protection and support we provide.

8 To address this, it is crucial to strengthen our laws regarding the sexual 9 abuse of minors and sexual assault by simplifying statutory language, removing 10 barriers to prosecution, and introducing a long-overdue voyeurism statute which 11 is critical, as increased access to technology—such as hidden cameras and online
12 dissemination—has made children and vulnerable individuals more susceptible 13 to exploitation. Current statutes (6 CMC § 1306 and § 1307) prohibit sexual 14 penetration or contact with persons under thirteen (13) years of age; the 15 Legislature proposes raising this age limit to fifteen (15) years to better protect 16 minors. This change aligns with most jurisdictions that have raised their ages of 17 consent to offer increased protection for minors and enhance the overall safety of 18 the community. Moreover, the Legislature finds that it would be appropriate to 19 update certain definitions to cover other circumstances not included in the 20 previous laws. Terms such as ‘consent’ and ‘voyeurism’ are revised and added to 21 bring CNMI law up to date with the realities of current societal challenges.

22 Existing laws also fail to address voyeurism. Unlike many other 23 jurisdictions, the CNMI lacks a statute criminalizing the intentional invasion of 24 another person’s privacy without their consent while observing that person in the 25 privacy of their own home or another private place. Currently, these offenses are 26 often classified under the general charge of Disturbing the Peace, complicating 27 efforts to identify specific instances of voyeurism. This broad classification leads 28 to unjust outcomes for victims, as offenders typically face only petty misdemeanor

HOUSE BILL 24-1, HS1

1 charges. Moreover, existing penalties do not adequately reflect the emotional and 2 psychological harm inflicted by these violations. A specific voyeurism statute
3 would address the rise in such acts, create stiffer penalties to hold offenders
4 accountable, and recognize the emotional and psychological harm to victims.

5 Revisions to current CNMI law set forth herein in the form of repealed and 6 re-enacted statutes that were substantively revised as well as minor amendments 7 to statutes that were necessary to update certain sections that are contained in 8 this legislation are all in compliance with the constitutional “one-subject” rule.
9 This is because all the legislative changes herein relate to Title 6, Ch. 3, Sexual 10 Offenses, Article 1. General Provisions, specifically, to sexual abuse/assault of 11 minors.

12 SECTION 2. REPEAL AND RE-ENACTMENT.

9 second degree if

10 (1) the offender engages in sexual contact with a person who is 11 under 15 years of age or aids, induces, causes, or encourages a person who 12 is under 15 years of age to engage in sexual contact with another person;

13 (2)(A) being 18 years of age, the offender engages in sexual contact with 14 a person who is under 15 years of age; or

16 person who is under 16 years of age; or

18 person who is under 17 years of age; or

20 contact with a person who is under 18 years of age.

25 4252 shall not be eligible for parole, if at all, until two-thirds of this 26 minimum sentence has been served.”

For the sake of maintaining the remaining code sections, Section 1309 shall remain codified or re-enacted as “RESERVED” so as not to require the re-numbering of subsequent sections within Division 1, Part, 1, Chapter 3, Article 1. Accordingly, Section 1309 is hereby re-enacted to read as follows:

“Section 1309. RESERVED”.SECTION 6. AMENDMENT.

Title 6, Section 1310 of the Commonwealth Code is hereby amended to read as follows:
